Stand up with the People and you will always be right.

One of the funniest things thus far developed in this campaign is the concerted action of the g. o. p. editors holding up their hands in holy horror for morality! With such vile and immoral characters as Anthony, Botkin, et al, it would seem that the organs would sing exceedingly small on morality, integrity and honor. Stand up with the People.

The editor of School and Scholar, published at Conway Springs makes an uncalled for attack in his paper on Supt. McLaughlin. When the people understand that this man threatened to make such an attack if he was not given work in the institute, the animus of his course in filling his columns with such stuff will readily be understood and fall harmless.

The Monitor-Press has changed its title to read "The Monitor-Press stands up for Kansas." Of course it does. It recorded in cold black and white that the settlers had grown desperate and kicked up a political row because of continued crop failures since they came here. Isn't that standing up for a country that has grown the grain that grand old Kansas has grown?

"Mr. Editor, be sure to keep track of those prominent men who are coming out for the People's cause" says a brother at our elbow. We can't do it. They are coming too thick and fast to be counted at a distance. We shall no longer lack for leaders of prominence and ability. And thousands of the middle class of people are coming with each leader. Stand up with the People!

Sumner county is going to return A. G. Forney to the legislature. Mr. Forney is a hard worker and well worthy of their support.—Advocate.

Mr. Forney has never been in the legislature, but will be our next senator. He will succeed Senator J. W. Forney, his brother, who is a Republican. Hon. J. M. Doubleday and G. E. Meeker will be returned and enter the next house with their old time vigor.

The Monitor has discovered that "the People's party is in a conspiracy to give the mine-owners one dollar for every sixty-three cents worth of silver they produce." With such ridiculous chaff it probably hopes to convince former members of its party that they should return to the fold. It is really surprising what a low estimate some g. o. p. editors place on the intelligence of the reading public. The people call for bread and they cast them a stone. Away with such hoodoos. They are enemies of their country.

The "senior" told us last week to make note of the criticism offered by Bro. Branscombe to our "sizing up" the crowd at Smith and Long's meeting in that city and it is our fault that it was not done. Mr. Naugle sized the meeting up at 150 to 200, gauging it by the one which he attended at Mulvane. It is claimed that there were all of 600 people at South Haven, and the Voice is perfectly willing to give them credit to their outside limit. We always thought it good policy to give the devil his due. South Haven is usually a good place to get a crowd. The people are awake to the issues, and charitable to all alike. We were very sorry to hear that the Smith and Long aggregation failed to give satisfaction and we only wish that the people there might get an opportunity to hear Simpson. The contrast would be very pleasing.

Look here, Mr. Populist: The Republican papers say many of you are going back to the g. o. p. We don't believe it. In fact, it is not so. But should one reader of this have even entertained such an idea, let him stop and think. Ask yourself the question whether there is the remotest prospect of ever receiving any further advantages in any shape or form by continuing the Republican party in power. If you have any reason whatever for complaint about your state laws, your financial condition and the present status of business, you have the Republican party to blame. They make no pledges to reform. Then what could you expect to gain by going back to your "old love?" A change is needed. A party long in power becomes corrupt. Stand up with the people.

A sample of the conversions to the People's party faith which are taking place daily is reported by Bro. McLaughlin. At the Wichita rally he mounted a wagon in the procession and entered into conversation with the proprietor. It proved to be Mr. Lee Smith, of Sedgwick, a new worker in the ranks. Mr. Smith stated that he had always been a Republican, but was not fully satisfied on some points, so he attended a meeting of his party and while Chester I. Long was speaking asked him a few questions for information. The mild and gentle Long, who will find that he is too short November 8, became wrathful and abused Mr. Smith so outrageously that he arose and publicly announced then and there that he was forever done with the g. o. p. He further stated that he actually had to cease his open expressions to avoid being handled violently by his Republican brethren. All the same he had a load of wheat in the procession at Wichita, which he donated to the Weaver campaign committee.

The great demonstration of the People at Wichita Tuesday was the largest political gathering that ever assembled in this section of the state, notwithstanding the Associated press report belittles it in a manner that would be a disgrace to the columns of a Republican county newspaper. There were by actual count in the procession 571 vehicles, 1765 voters and upwards of 7,000 people, counting a host of horsemen. The banners and floats were elegant and pointed. There must have been 10,000 to 12,000 people on the grounds. Governor Lewelling spoke first, followed by Jerry Simpson and Col. Haines. Jerry Simpson was tendered a perfect ovation and is said to have made the greatest effort of his life. Being on the same ground on which Judge Botkin so grossly slandered him, he literally skinned the scoundrel alive and amid the deafening applause of the multitude stretched his filthy hide upon the trees to dry. It was a monster demonstration and will be followed by another on the occasion of General Weaver's visit to Wichita.

THE OUTLOOK.

From every direction comes cheering news for the Populists. Prominent men of the old parties and newspapers by the score are coming out on the side of the people every week. Organizations are now being perfected in every state in the union, and there is absolutely nothing in the political news to discourage the members of the new party. In Colorado the Democratic state convention has almost unanimously endorsed the People's ticket, which insures the election of Weaver electors and the state ticket.

In California the movement is growing so rapidly that we can be reasonably sure of claiming that state. In Texas the split in the Democratic party is growing wider and the People's movement is gaining rapidly.

Nebraska is safe for a grand People's victory, while all the northwestern states are becoming earnest and enthusiastic in the grand work.

We are sure of Alabama, while Georgia, the Carolinas and several other southern states are ripe for a change for the better.

In our own beloved state the good work goes bravely on, and if not another Populist meeting were held before the election, we would elect our whole state ticket by from thirty to fifty thousand majority. The g. o. p. is doomed in this state, and may as well lie down and die peaceably as to struggle and kick. The state is ours.

From every direction comes the news of the certainty of gains in Congressmen, and instead of eight we shall more than likely have eighty members in the house of representatives. Keep the ball rolling. Stand up with the people.

FALL FESTIVITIES.

St. Louis Extends a Cordial Welcome to All.

The city of St. Louis has become famous the country over through the agency of her annual Fall Festivities, and from that source has gained the sobriquet of the "Carnival City of America."

For the season of 1892 all previous efforts in the line of entertainment will be eclipsed. The great St. Louis Exposition will throw its doors open to the public Wednesday, September 7th, and will continue to entertain and delight thousands during a period extending over forty days. One of the chief attractions announced by the management is the engagement of Col. P. S. Gilmore and his world-renowned band, one hundred strong. The illumination by gas and electricity of the streets will extend over a larger area and be on a grander scale than any similar exhibition ever attempted in the world. The thirty-second great St. Louis Fair and Zoological Gardens, Oct. 3rd to 8th, whose fame has been heralded broadcast, will be one of the main attractions of that week, and as has been customary for the last thirteen years the Velled Prophet will again appear in his favorite city, on the evening of Tuesday, October 4th. The hotel accommodations of St. Louis have been materially increased since last year and strangers are assured of hospitable treatment.

The Missouri Pacific Railway and Iron Mountain Route, with their vast network of lines extending over the States of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Indian Territory, Arkansas, the West, South and Southwest, in order to encourage travel, have made a remarkably low round trip rate from points on their lines to St. Louis and return during the Festivities.

For further information relative to dates of sale and limits of tickets call on or address any Missouri Pacific or Iron Mountain ticket agent, who will be pleased to furnish same.

My store is under roof again and I am prepared to do a better business and carry a better stock than ever before. A. G. Haltiwanger. 43-44
